SOCIAL EVENTS AND PERSONAL MENTION

The scholarship medal. In completing the post-graduate course this year, Miss Bibb is the first pupil to receive the artist's diploma from the Richmond Conservatory of Music.

Married in Washington.
The marriage of Miss Evelyn Edmond Herndon and Furness Hill Agee was celebrated in Washington on June 2, the Rev. Hugh T. Stevenson performing the ceremony, and following a wedding journey will be at home to their friends in Asiland, after July 1. The bride is a daughter of John Marshall Herndon, of Lynchburg, and Mr. Agee is a son of John B. Agee, of Warren.

Attend Roanoke Wedding.
At 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, a beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Greene Memorial Methodist Church, at Roanoke, when the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Davis, Audrey Lee, and Carroll Livingston Garnett, of Richmond, were married.

Max Brownlow played a short musical program while the guests were assembling. The ribbons were held by Miss Mary Davis, sister of the bride, and Miss Margaret Trainer, of West Union, W. Va.

The ushers were George H. Gilbert, of Richmond, and Alexander B. Mahood, of Bluefield, W. Va. The groomsmen were Howard S. Nulton, of Richmond; J. Taylor Twyman, of Charlottesville; C. Gratton Price, of Harrisonburg; and Chester Markley, of Roanoke.

The altar was beautifully decorated in palms and quantities of American beauties, where the bridal party was met by the groom with his best man, John D. Crowle, Jr., of Staunton.

Miss Helen Becker and Miss Dorothy Moonaw were dressed in white and blue, round length frocks. Miss Mary Byrd, of Shreveport, La., and Miss Mary V. Yancey, of Harrisonburg, were gowned in yellow and white quaker lace over white net.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Rosa Nelson Hughes, of Welch, W. Va., wore white satin, draped in white chiton, brocaded with velvet and trimmed with pearls, her train was pointed and she carried an arm bouquet of Killarney roses.

Miss Lula Davis, of Baltimore, Md., was maid of honor, and wore a handsome gown of pale pink charmeuse with a draped skirt and pointed train. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Garnett, of Hampton.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Garnett, of Hampton, mother and father of the groom; Mrs. W. H. Pace, of Hampton, sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Trainer and Miss Margaret Trainer, of West Union, W. Va.; Robert M. Friend, of Petersburg; Louis B. Fahe, of Richmond; James M. Price, of Richmond; Mrs. Rose Nelson Hughes, of Welch, W. Va.; Miss Lula Davis, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Byrd, of Shreveport,

La.; Miss Mary V. Yancey, of Harrisonburg; John D. Crowle, Jr., of Staunton; Howard S. Nulton, Richmond; J. Taylor Twyman, Charlottesville; C. Gratton Price, of Harrisonburg; George H. Gilbert, Richmond, and Alexandria B. Mahood, of Bluefield, W. Va.

Entertaining House Party.
Miss Esther Wilson, a student at Stuart Hall, Staunton, returned to her home in Tapahannock, last week, and is entertaining a house party. The guests include Miss Margaret Elsie, of Texas, and Miss Annie Scott, of Richmond, schoolmates of Miss Wilson; also Misses Mae Owens, of West Point, and Barbara Gregory, of King William County.

Numerous motor and boating parties have been planned for Miss Wilson and her guests.

Musical Next Week.
Madame Nellie Foster will give a musical on June 22 at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Osgood, the rectory near Brook Hill. A charming program has been arranged, and some well-known artists of Richmond, assisted by the Madame Foster's pupils, will sing.

Annual Commencement.
The fourth annual commencement of the Misses C. Price's Music School will be held on Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School. It will be a very interesting affair, and a delightful program will be rendered.

Norfolk Wedding.
The home of Major and Mrs. C. L. Wright, in Norfolk, was Tuesday evening the scene of a beautiful wedding ceremony, when their daughter, Lilian McKinnley, became the wife of Eugene Pressly Davis, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends.

Before an improvised altar the ceremony was performed by Rev. Sparks W. Melton, of the Freeman Street Baptist Church.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, was gowned in white crepe meteor with veil of real lace, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Cora Vaughn, of Franklin, daughter of General and Mrs. C. C. Vaughn, was maid of honor and was dressed in white crepe de chine, and carried pink Killarney roses.

Misses Grace Rose, Alma Tarrell and Mary Watkins, of Norfolk, served Miss Wright as bridesmaids, and were dressed in white silk gowns with green girdles, and carried sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Eunnet Davis, brother of the groom, was his best man, with Charles W. Davis and Presley Barrett, of Norfolk, and R. E. Wilson, of Portsmouth, acting as ushers.

At the close of the ceremony Major and Mrs. Wright tendered a reception to the bride's party and friends. They were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Davis and members of the bridal party.

Among the out-of-town-guests-were:

General and Mrs. C. C. Vaughn, of Franklin; General and Mrs. W. W. Sale, of Richmond; S. H. McKinney and Mrs. Josephine McKinney, of Baltimore; Colonel A. B. Percy and Major P. B. Winfree, of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Beale, of Franklin; J. D. Davis, father of the bridegroom and Miss Annie Elizabeth Davis, sister of the bridegroom, of Sedley. An orchestra played during the ceremony and reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left at once for an extended Northern bridal tour. They will be at home after July 4, at 729 Boasvau Avenue, Norfolk.
